

Dear Families,

In the English 1 course, we hope to support our students' development as critical readers and writers using the writer's workshop model and by providing multiple opportunities for them to engage with a variety of texts.

